Fred E. Lietz Individual Ministry Award

Nomination Form

About the Award

The Fred E. Lietz Individual Ministry Award honors LCMS volunteers who put forth exceptional, untiring efforts in the work of Church Extension. These people truly “make a difference” in their community, congregation and especially within the Lutheran Church Extension Fund.

Created in 1990, the Fred E. Lietz Ministry Awards are named in honor of Fred Lietz who was the first executive secretary of Church Extension in 1957. Mr. Lietz then became the first president of the Lutheran Church Extension Fund when the organization was incorporated in 1978.

Qualifications

Nominated individuals must be members of congregations within The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (or were members during their lifetime).

To be considered for the award, an individual must:

- Have served as a volunteer with LCEF for five or more years.
- Have made significant contributions to LCEF.
- Be recognized by peers as a leader.
- Exemplify Christian faith and love.
- Reflect the goals of the LCEF mission statement.

Entry Information

Any individual or organization within the LCMS may nominate individuals for the Lietz Individual Ministry Award. Entries must be submitted using the official nomination form or a photocopy. Entries must be typed.

The nomination form must be accompanied by a one-page typed description of the individual's contributions and achievements in LCEF. This narrative should describe the nominee and provide reasons why the individual should be selected as a Fred E. Lietz Individual Ministry Award recipient.

Send nomination information to the LCEF President, PO Box 229009, St. Louis, MO 63122-9009.

Deadlines

Nominations must be received by September 12, 2008. Judging will be completed by October 3, 2008, with awards presented at the Fall Leadership Conference in November.

Judging

Entries will be evaluated by a panel of judges including LCEF regional coordinators, the LCEF president, and select officers of LCEF. The judging team reserves the right to present several awards, one, or none.
